

Long live the games!

Written and illustrated by Hervé Le Goff
Translation by Eline de Mathuisieulx and Camilla Zerr

1

The lion enters the stadium to thunderous applause.
After a lap around the circus ring, he climbs a few steps then sets fire to the basin...
and some of his fur as a bonus.

The Animal Games are on!

2

Africa, America, Antartica, Asia, Europe und Oceania!
The six continents are represented by their greatest athletes.
They have trained hard for months to be here.

Everyone is ready. Ready for what?
Well, to be the best, of course! The best of the best.

3

... the one who throws the f a a a r t h e s t!
And no cheating, please!

4

... the one who jumps the h i i i i g h e s t!
Ooooooh!

5

... or the one who is the strongest of the strong!
Erm... very impressive!

6

Who said you had to be the tallest or the biggest to win?
The strongest is often the cleverest of the clever!

7

And the most acrobatic?
They'll be the most fantastic in gymnastics!

8

With eagle eyes and velvet paws,
they need to be able to concentrate...
to hit the bull's-eye!

9

The shortest route is not always the wisest to reach a goal.
A few zigzags, a close-knit team... and bam! it's won!
Friendship is a force that should never be neglected.

10

Sometimes the obstacles seem insurmountable,
but adversity reveals the bravest among us.

11

And when everything seems possible,
you reach lightning speed!

12

Friendship, surpassing oneself, and respect were upheld.

Congratulations to the champions!!!!

END